PROFILE

I am a university student who is actively looking for work in hospitality.

I believe that I am a highly motivated and adaptable individual that can work effectively within teams.

Specific to hospitality, my previous experiences in team-based positions have helped me integrate into various teams as I have come to understand the significance of communicative, friendly and organized environments.

Additionally, I am a punctual and reliable individual that enjoys being purposeful, determined and open-minded to new opportunities, work and experience.

Please contact me. I am available at short notice.

I would be able to easily integrate into evening and weekend shifts.
